Caring for widows around the world

THE LOOMBA FOUNDATION 5K CHARITY RUN

in support of

INTERNATIONAL WIDOWS DAY 2013

Sunday 23 June 2013, Hyde Park, London

Around 115 million widows in the world today live in poverty.

1.5 million widows' children don't live to see their 5th birthday.

International Widows Day is a global day of action that aims to raise public awareness of the plight of widows and their children around the world.

Register online today to participate in this Summer's 5km charity run around the Serpentine.
